

10 HOT THINGS TO DO NOW...

LE FREAK, C'EST CHIC

French fancies Air are back with a new album, Le Voyage Dans La Lune, the soundtrack to a 100-year-old film by Georges Méliès. Their most atmospheric album since debut Moon Safari. Out Mon

FACT KATE'S FIRST ROLE WAS IN 1984 WHEN THE 11-YEAR-OLD ACTRESS DANCED OPPOSITE THE HONEY MONSTER IN A SUGAR PUFFS ADVERT!

BIG FRIENDLY APP

To coincide with the Quentin Blake: As Large As Life exhibition at the Foundling Museum, you can now catch his artwork – drawn to cheer up residents in hospitals – on your iPad. Free, itunes.apple.com/igb

2

FIGHT CLUB

With a script based on God Of Carnage, Roman Polanski as a director, and a cast including Kate Winslet and Jodie Foster, Carnage wins on credentials. However, the screen transfer of a story about two NYC parents whose kids are fighting remains stagey. ★★★☆☆ Out Friday

3

CINEMA RAVE

Filmed during The Chemical Brothers' slot at Japan's Fuji Rock festival last year, this groundbreaking film places cameras in the audience. You'll feel like you're there without leaving your seat. 'Don't Think' out Friday

5

STYLISH SNAPS

Here's a chance to see some never-before-seen images in this exhibition of prints by legendary fashion photographer Norman Parkinson. A charming look at British fashion in the 1950s and '60s.

An Eye For Fashion, M Shed, Bristol (msbed.org) until 15 April